

July 12, 1940.

Mr. James Crump,
614 West 113th St.,
New York City.

Dear Crump:

Since talking to you yesterday, I have contacted Mr. Pompez and he informed me that he was going to Bridgeport, Conn. Saturday and from there to Albany Sunday, A. M., therefore, it will be impossible for you to leave with him Sunday A. M. as I advised you to do.

Will you please catch the train and be in Albany not later than 1. P. M. Sunday, and I will refund you and Turner your transportation.

Very truly yours,

AM:CCJ